

We are Amberg Loglay AG, a young – dynamic company that is active in the field of construction process planning and as the fulcrum of digital logistics nationally and internationally. We follow our goal to enforce the development of our software, which supports us where data and sensors automate processes, in the best possible way for the customer. We see the construction site as an integral part and engine of the Smart City of tomorrow. We bring the right stakeholders together and accompany the project through all phases.

Project Planner / Project Manager for digital logistics under construction

Your tasks are:

- Planning, organization and control of logistics services for complex construction projects
- Creation of logistics concepts, manuals and documentation
- Contact person for logistical questions with clients
- Comprehensive monitoring and continuous assessment of the project phases up until completion
- Visualization of concepts for the submission of quotations as well as cost determination in the framework of quotation calculation
- Tendering, awarding and contract preparation for Logistics
- Control and coordination of the project team
- Contact person for the construction management and control of subcontractors
- Participation in planning meetings with other project stakeholders
- Planning of construction site facilities taking into Account functional, technical and economic connections
- Application and coordination of logistics software on the construction site
- Ongoing support of operational projects in terms of preparation and Updating of planning documents
- Creation of target/actual comparisons and meaningful reports for the processes of the Construction
- Working for strategic decisions
- German Language Skills (Good) and desired English Language Skills (Good)

Your life backpack is filled with:

- Successfully completed studies or training in the field of construction (Architecture / Building Engineering / Construction Management)
- Knowledge in the preparation of construction process planning and / or logistics concepts
- Good experience in the planning of construction processes / scheduling / tenders
- In-depth professional experience in logistics and/or logistics coordination
- Interest in digitization and development of new working methods
- Open, flexible, creative, innovative
- Teamwork, assertiveness, the self-employed and committed way of working interested?

Become part of our company and shape our growth. Exciting tasks and responsibilities are waiting for you. Short decision-making and a collegial environment shape our cooperation. We offer a modern working environment (working from home or on the road in part and full time), state of the art work media and attractive working conditions with a fair compensation model.

We look forward to receiving your application, please send it to mgehrig@ambergloglay.com

Even if you don't have the perfect conditions for this position; there is always the opportunity to learn new things in life. Your will and need to learn new things are an important part of this position.